

The Cultural History of Japanese Buddhist Art

Thursday, August 18, 2022, 1:00-2:30pm

***FREE ADMISSION***

Please call for reservation: (989) 759-1648

Monika Dix, Professor of Japanese at Saginaw Valley State University, will talk about the rise and development of Japanese Buddhist art from the 7th through 20th centuries. We will examine the various roles Buddhist sculptures, paintings and texts played in shaping the cultural history of Japan. Come and join us!

Follow us on Facebook for upcoming events!

Japanese Cultural Center, Tea House and Gardens of Saginaw

527 Ezra Rust Drive, Saginaw, MI 48601 Email: director@japaneseculturalcenter.org

<http://japaneseculturalcenter.org/>